

Please don't consider passing something that would lessen what is already being done in Indiana. I used to be bombarded with telemarketing calls all evening and even on weekends. Now I receive maybe 1-2 per week. This has been so helpful in preserving my quality "at home" time.